Regarding the announcement from JA Mitsui Leasing, Ltd.

JA Mitsui Leasing, Ltd. ("JAML"), a group company of The Norinchukin Bank ("the Bank"), made an announcement today on its website regarding an allowance for doubtful accounts, related to Katsumi Global, LLC, which is a JAML's group company.

JAML has maintained a stable business platform. It is an important group company of the Bank and is expected to continue to achieve business growth going forward.

Therefore, the Bank is planning to provide necessary support in coordination with Mitsui & Co., Ltd., and is constructively discussing JAML's capital reinforcement and business management improvement.

Additionally, the Bank is also constructively discussing with Sumitomo Mitsui Banking Corporation and other major financing banks of JAML, regarding JAML's capital reinforcement through subordinated loans in a syndicated format.

As a shareholder of JAML, the Bank will take the appropriate actions while closely watching the developments of the subject case.
