The Norinchukin Bank

Norinchukin Innovation Fund Invests in Mooji Meats Inc.

The Norinchukin Bank (President & CEO: KITABAYASHI Taro; “the Bank”) is pleased to announce that the Norinchukin Innovation Fund (“the Fund”) invested in Mooji Meats Inc. (CEO: Insa Mohr; “Mooji Meats”), a company engaged in the development and sale of plant-based steak products.

In the plant-based meat sector, improving the reproducibility of texture is regarded as one of the key factors for broader adoption. Mooji Meats develops plant-based steak products that pursue an authentic texture by leveraging proprietary technology based on 3D printing, and markets these products under the Offbeast brand.

The Bank will continue to contribute to the realization of a sustainable society by investing in Mooji Meats and other companies through the Fund.
